

Northern Development by the numbers

Northern Development Initiative Trust is an independent, non-profit corporation that exists to stimulate economic growth through strategic and leveraged investments that build a strong and diversified economy in central and northern British Columbia

Northern Development has approved $122 million in funding for 1,472 projects since 2005

The Trust was created through an act of Provincial legislation in 2004 and was infused with $185 million to help build the economy in the region

Northern Development's service region encompasses 75% of the geographic area of B.C., including 49 local governments, 88 First Nations and thousands of non-profit organizations and businesses

Northern Development is a sustainable Trust for the region, meaning that it only grants out a certain amount of its capital base per year to ensure that its capital base will remain intact to help local governments, First Nations and non-profits for years to come. Today, the Trust's capital base totals more than $200 million

The Trust has helped create 6,090 jobs in central and northern B.C. since it was created in 2005

The Trust has worked with 2,376 funding partners to attract more than $1.1 billion in investment to the region since 2005

73% of the Trust's investments are in communities with less than 5,000 people

99%

Northern Development's board approves 99% of the funding applications the Trust receives

1:47 ROI

Return on Investment 1:47

Grant writers have raised $47 in approved funding for their communities for every dollar the Trust has invested in supporting them

SINCE 2010

Since 2010, community grant writers that have raised $84 million in additional funding for the regions with Northern Development's support

Since 2010, the Trust has approved $23 million in funding for local government-led projects throughout central and northern B.C.

Since 2010, 52% of the projects the Trust has approved have been for municipalities and regional districts

Since 2010, nearly 17% of the projects the Trust has approved have gone to support First Nations communities throughout the region

Since 2010, 31% of the projects the Trust has approved have supported businesses and non-profits throughout central and northern B.C.