Appendix 1: Host First Nation Code of Conduct Policy Statement

A safe and healthy work environment for all employees is vitally important to the successful operation of the First Nation. The employer supports a policy of providing a safe work environment that is designed, constructed, operated, and maintained in accordance with established occupational health and safety standards. The employer is committed to the principle that no job or task is so important that it cannot be performed without taking full account of the health and safety risks involved, and protecting against these risks by taking every precaution reasonable in the circumstances.

The employer will comply with all applicable legal requirements relating to occupational health and safety. The employer and all employees must jointly make all reasonable efforts to provide a safe and healthy work environment.

The employer promotes a work environment that is free from discrimination and sexual harassment where all employees are treated with respect and dignity. Employees have the right to employment without discrimination.

Discrimination includes incidences of harassment because of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religion, family status, marital status, physical disability, mental disability, sex, age, sexual orientation, political belief or conviction of a criminal or summary conviction offence unrelated to an individual's employment.

Sexual harassment is a form of discrimination and is defined as any unwelcome comment or conduct of a sexual nature that may detrimentally affect the work environment or lead to adverse job related consequences for the victim of the harassment.

Discrimination and sexual harassment violate the fundamental rights, dignity and integrity of the individual. Where discrimination or sexual harassment is found to have occurred, the employer may implement remedial action.

I hereby certify that I have read and will comply by this code of conduct:
