Please describe how your organization met the goals of the project and the targets set in the original application. Please document any variances in project scope, schedule, budget, and participants.

The BC Hydro GO Fund is targeting regional priority areas that have been identified by communities and service organizations in the region, including:

- Healthy food options (food bank support, nutrition, education)
- Child development programming (daytime: infant, toddler, pre-school and after-school: tweens and teens)
- Family care (support and education around violence, addiction, and healthy relationships)
- Affordable transportation to improve access to services and programs.
- Affordable access to technology.

Please provide comments on changes or additions in regional priority areas of need for vulnerable populations that your organization serves.

✦ Applications for future year intakes are welcome once your project report is received.
